

I protest the introduction of LPFM which will eliminate the use of FM translators. Many of us receive programming we enjoy or use by translators and their elimination will remove the freedom to hear what we want to hear.